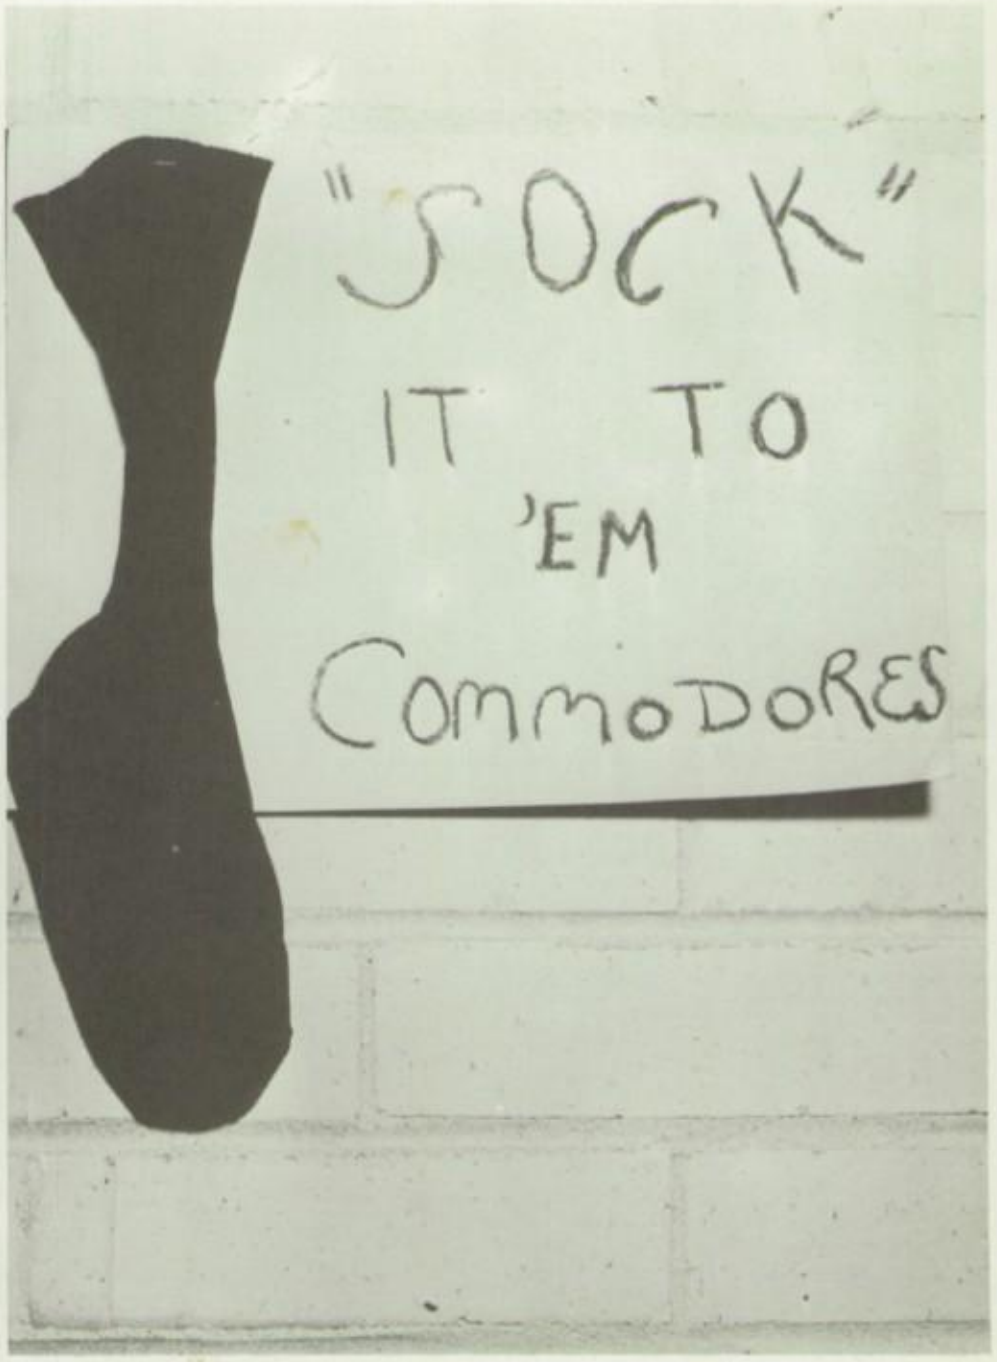
"I'll take a hamburger and four cokes."

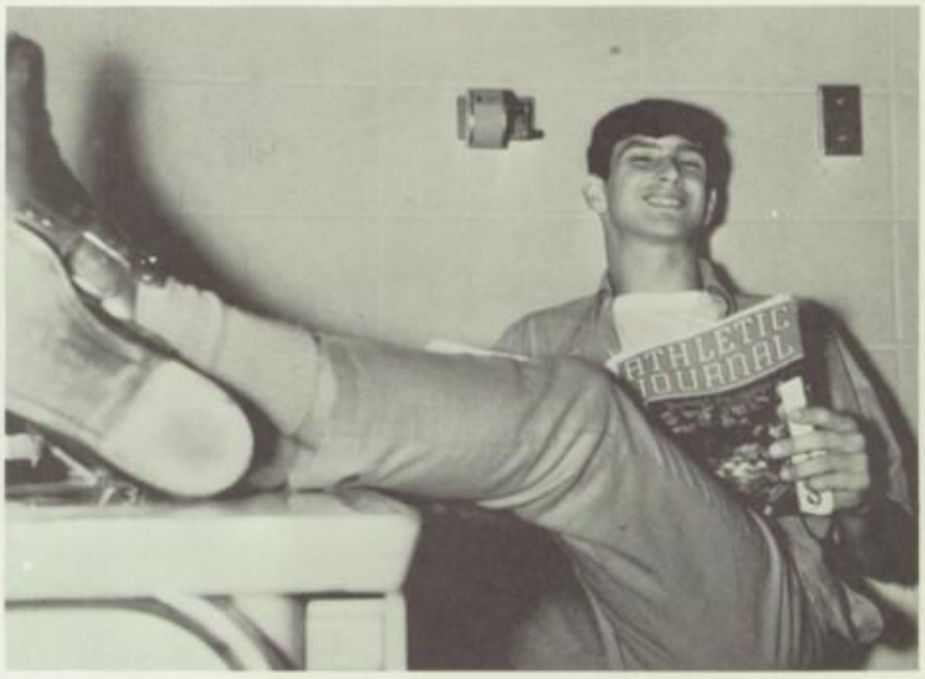


The saga of the sockless Commodore.

"Dear Ann Landers, I have this problem . . ."

Ladder of success.

"Once we get over the fence, we're free."



Just another hardworking L. H. S. athlete.

Our defensive line.

"We finally caught the Green Phantom."

The Three Musketeers.

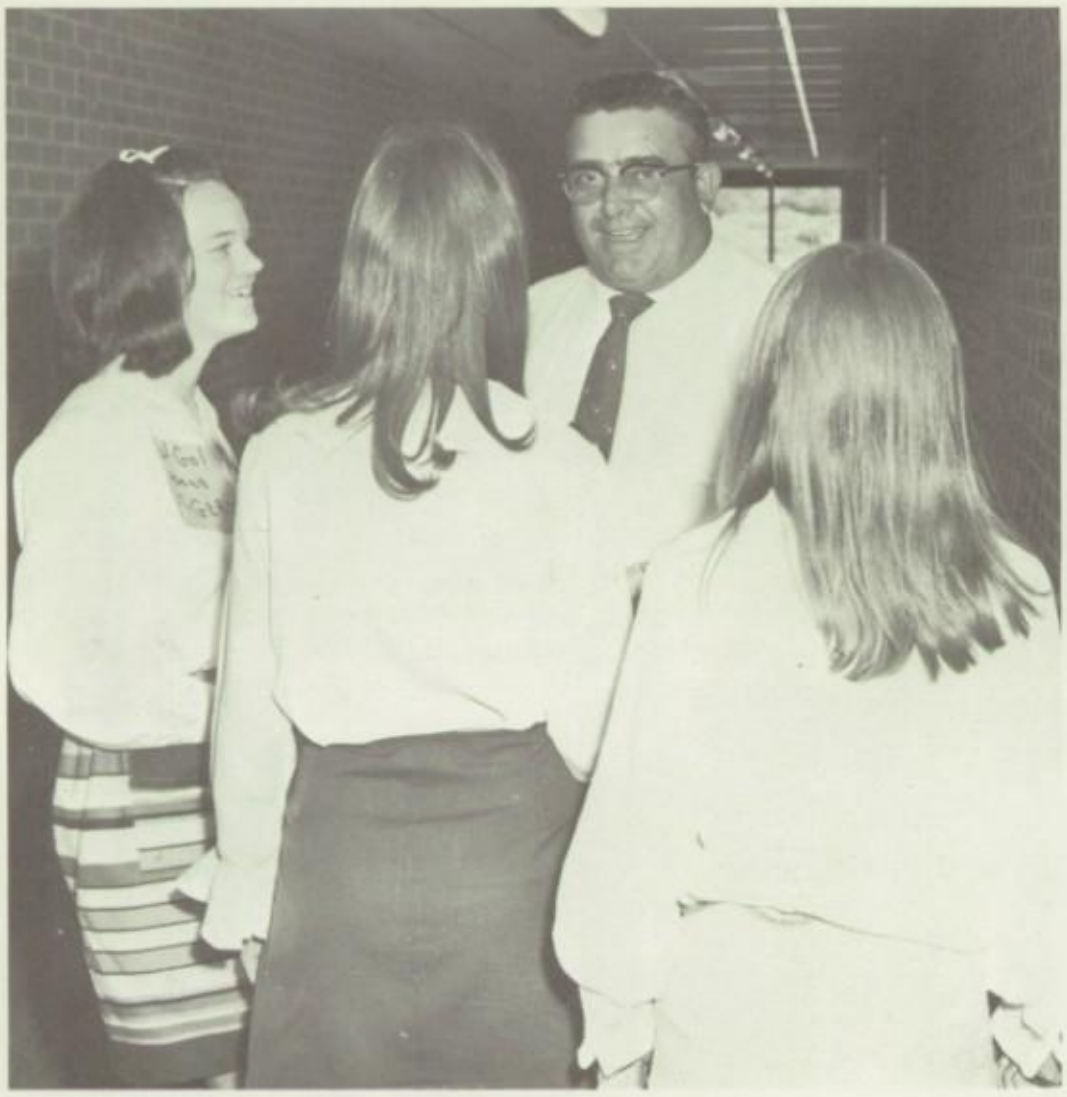
The quiet before the storm.

Sock it to him, Coach.

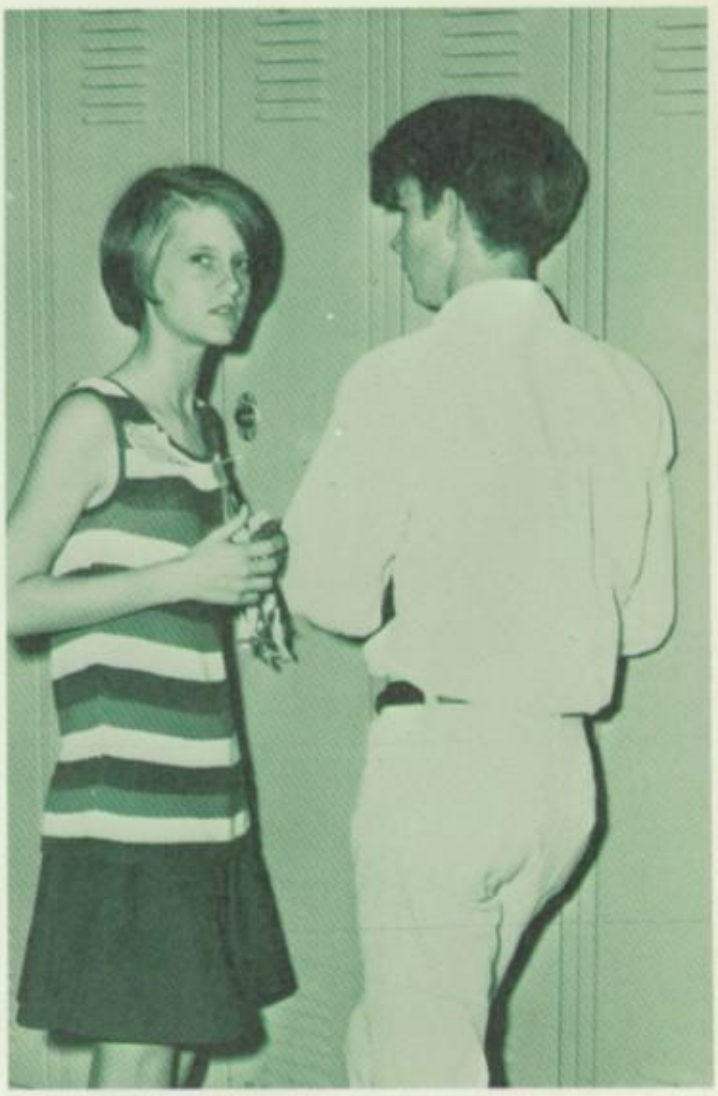
Gotcha!!!

"This is your next mission, should you decide to accept it . . . "

Now that's what I call a party line!



I bet he says that to all the girls.



"You have WHOM in your locker?"

Archie's fan club.

Load 'em up, and move 'em out.

"Hup, 2, 3, 4 . . . "

Born to be wild.

"I'll bet you 5 to 1 they don't make it."

Keep the ball rolling.

Our own Sigmund Freud.

Mighty Mike.

Home from the hills.

A funny thing happened on the way to the gym.

"Hi!"

All quiet on the western front.

"I want a shave and haircut."

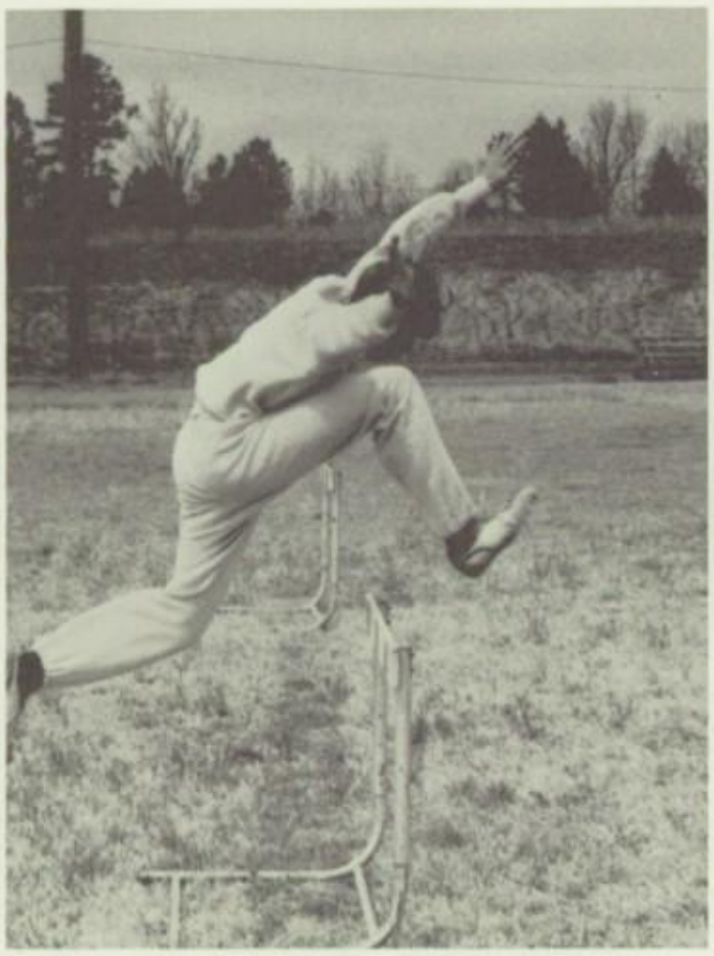
Monday, Monday . . .

Look who's made off with all the yellow passes.

"Whenever I feel afraid, I whistle a happy tune."

"Quick, before it melts!"

"I've got the proof I need."



"I think I'd rather tiptoe through the tulips."

"Quit pushing!"

Talk about double-jointed!

"Don't look now, but here comes the judge."

"I like the tie with the hand-painted hula girl the best."

"Are you sure this isn't the Rose Bowl?"

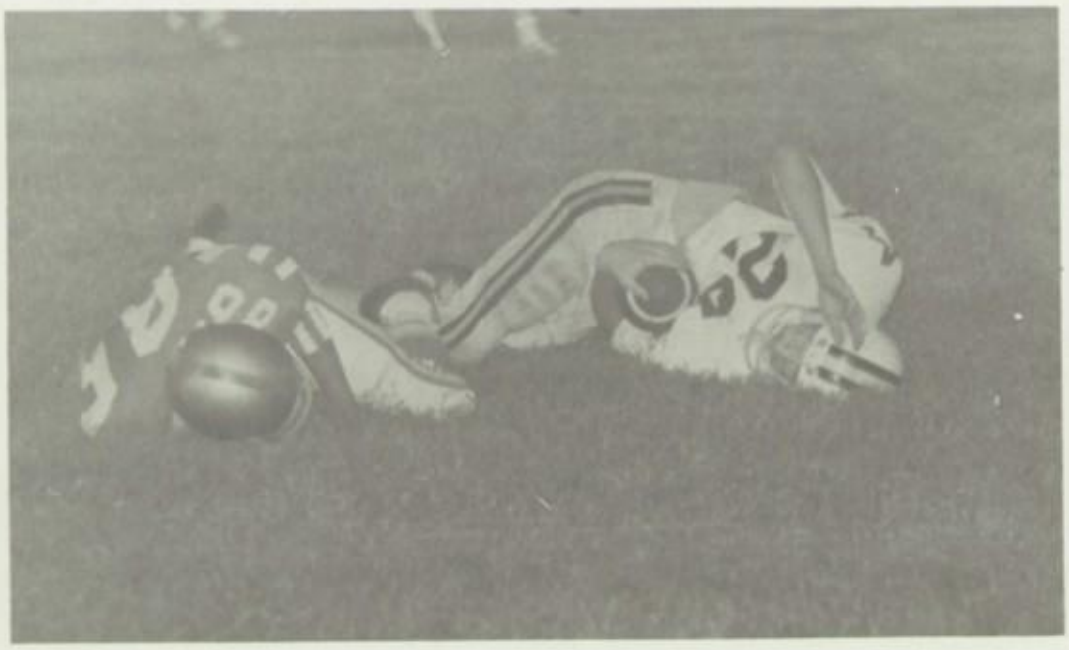
"How would you like to be Queen for a day?"

"That was NOT my shot!!!"

"Mirror, Mirror, on the wall . . . "

"I'll handle this."

Rest period.



So this is how they spend sixth period.

Pin it right; pin it tight.

"Can't take my eyes off you."

The 1970 COMMODORE is dedicated to Mrs. Forrest T. Johnson, a person who has devoted much of her time to the school and its activities.

In addition to being the Home Economics teacher, Mrs. Johnson is sponsor of the F.H.A. Not only has she done an excellent job in filling both of these capacities; she is also actively involved in helping other clubs with their projects, as well as supplying sandwiches to the coaches and officials at basketball games.

Mrs. Johnson's dedication to her work is equaled only by her interest in all the students and faculty members of L.H.S. One can always depend on her cooperation whenever a need arises.

We are thankful for the privilege of having a person such as Mrs. Johnson on the staff at L.H.S. Through her experience, wisdom, and integrity, she has made a priceless contribution to our school.

The Third annual Who's Who Pageant sponsored by the annual staff was presented on October 23. Students were chosen for honors by a secret ballot vote of the student body. The stage was decorated with a Halloween theme. The winners entered the stage from a haunted house. During Homecoming week, spirit rose to an all-time high. The Commodores concentrated on "Caging the Tigers," the maids prepared for the crowning ceremony, and hippie cheerleaders protested with signs saying "We'd rather fight than lose!" Although Holly Hi defeated the Commodores, the Homecoming spirit reigned.

The high school football team has improved their record to 4-6. The Junior High ended in a 4-3 record, and the Seventh and Eighth Grade team was undefeated with a 4-0 record.

The Lafayette High School Choir is under the direction of Mrs. Douglas McDonald. The choir is composed of both Junior and Senior High students.

The Lafayette High Modern Music Masters Club consists of members of chorus and band. The club feels that the best way to learn about music is to hear it performed at its best as often as possible and therefore give each of them a good standard of quality to strive for.

The purpose of the Modern Music Masters Club covers several areas. They seek to expose as many students as possible to the different forms of music in the following ways:

1. Having our own Lafayette students perform
2. Having outstanding University music students perform
3. Hearing concerts and recitals at the University or out-of town
4. Listening to outstanding performances by recordings.

Bonnie and Donna take magazines to the aged.

Senior Y-Teens is an organization with membership open to school girls who believe in and will work to realize the purpose of the YWCA in their own living, in their group, and in the community, nation, and world.

The purpose of the YWCA and Y-Teens is "to build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians."

Y-Teens is a service club. The projects of the club are those which will in some way benefit the school or community.

Junior Y-Teens

Junior Y-Teens is an organization of girls from grades eight and nine. The purpose of Jr. Y-Teens is the same as that of its parent organization, YWCA. This purpose is "to build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians."

Jr. Y-Teens is a service club. All projects supported by the club are those which will benefit the school, community, state or nation.

The human being is of importance to the Jr. Y-Teens. Her goal is to help others and encourage a belief in God and man.

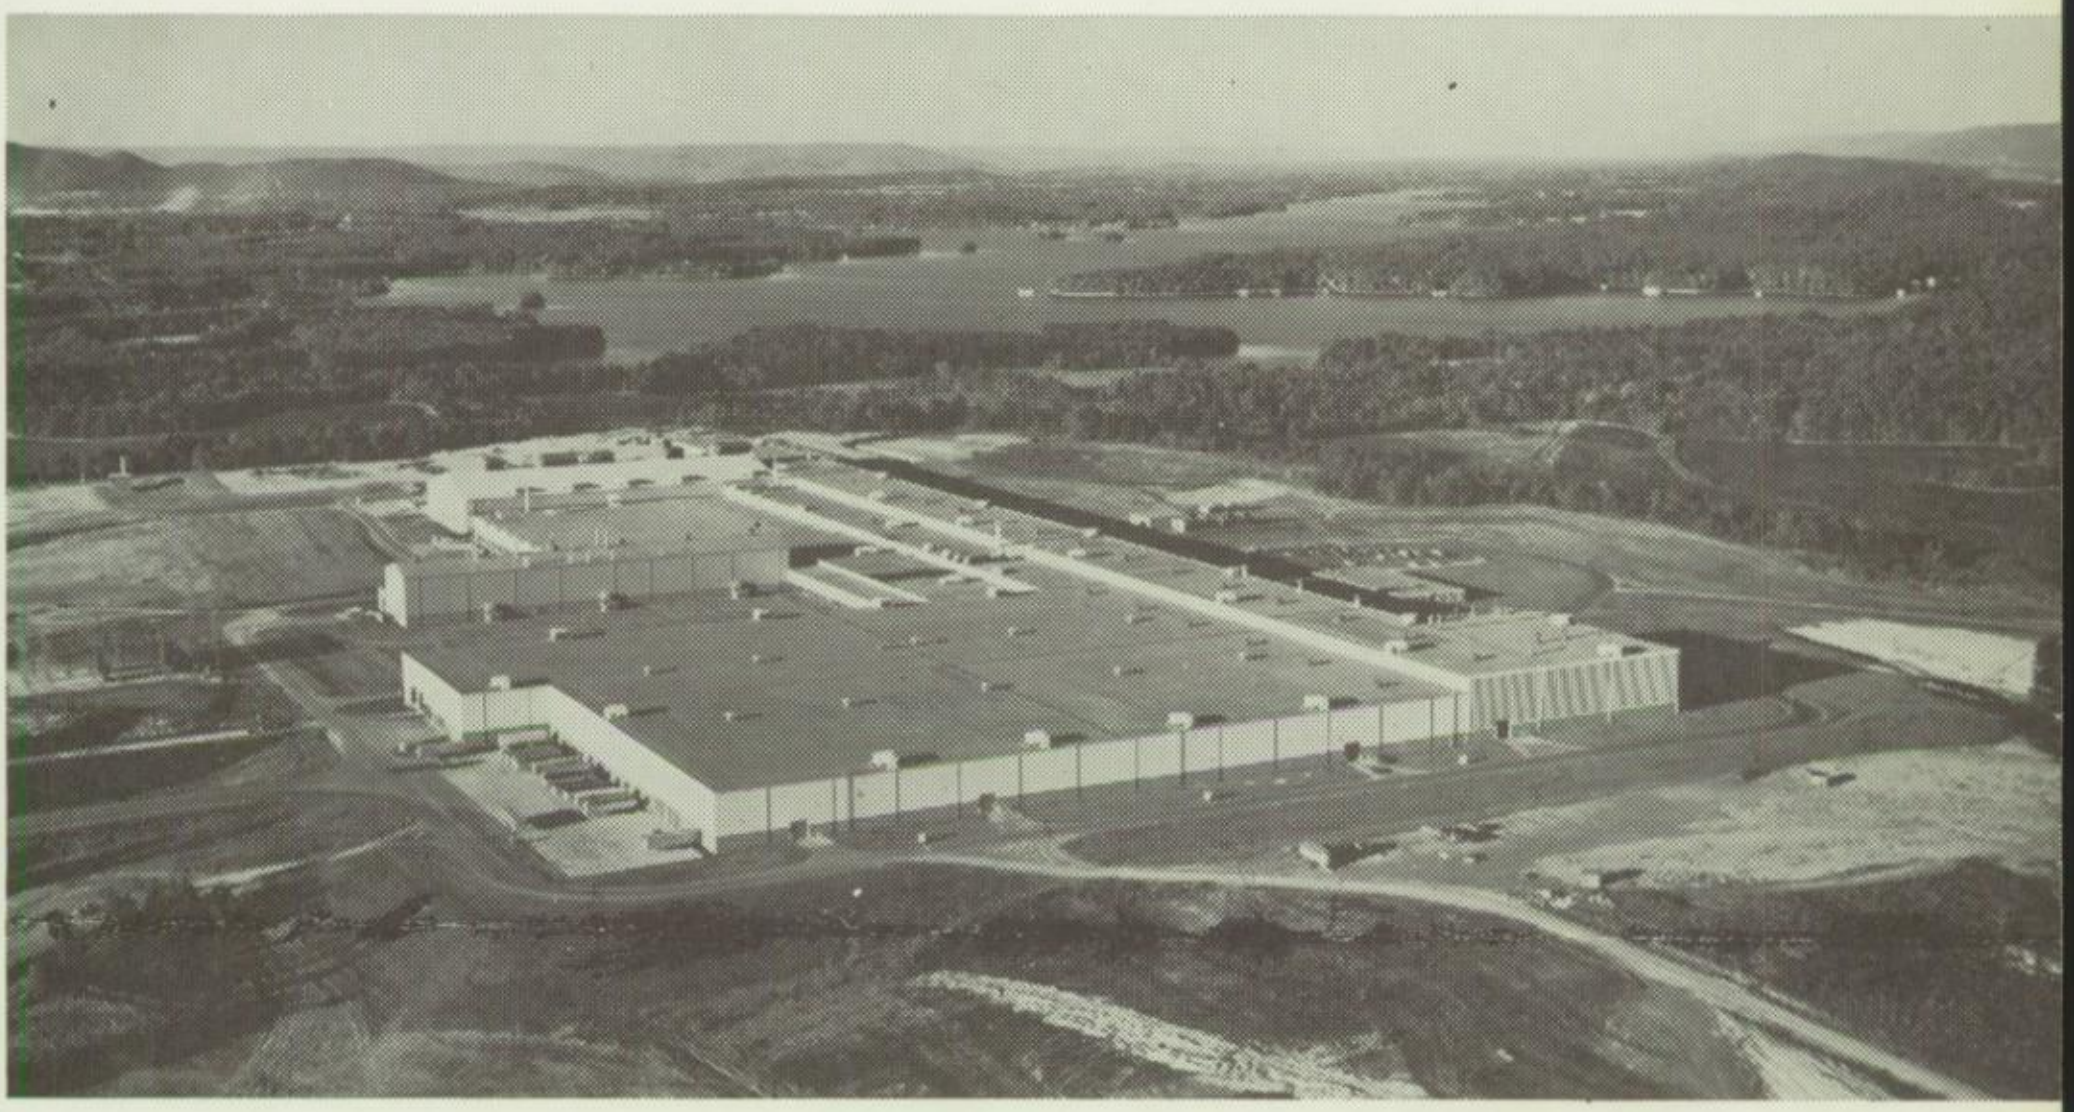
Industry puts muscle in our expanding economy



NORTHEAST POWER ASSOCIATION

In 1968, areas using TVA power reported some 200 new plants . . . expansion of 400 existing facilities. Expected results: investments of more than a half a billion dollars and new jobs for about 40,000 workers. For this area, these figures mean more wages, more products, and more and better things for your home. They mean muscle in our expanding economy!
